Air Timor New Kupang Service

Air Timor celebrated its inaugural flight from Kupang to Dili return on December 15th. A group of VIPs, Government officials and invitees from various sectors in the tourism and aviation industry witnessed the arrival of the Air Timor charter flight from Kupang to Dili at the VIP complex of Presidente Nicolau Lobato International Airport today. This Air Timor flight is operated by Indonesian air operator Transnusa Aviation Mandiri utilizing an ATR72 providing 70 seats with an all economy class configuration.

The newest fleet which is less than 3 years old from Transnusa Aviation Mandiri was welcomed traditionally by the "Tiru Be" (water spray) as it made its way to the tarmac for the first time. A Catholic priest blessed the aircraft and the Indonesian delegation from Kupang was welcomed by a Timorese dance together with gift presentation of a Tais.

The flights are operated 3 times a week, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The arrival of the inaugural flight from Kupang was witnessed by Minister of State and Counselor for National Security HE. Jose Ramos Horta, Minister of Foreign Affairs Dr. Aurelio Guterres representing Timor-Leste's Prime Minister, also the Vice Minister of Transportation and Communications HE Inacio Moreira, and a number of VIPs who welcomed a delegation from Indonesia including Assistant for Economic and Development for Province of Nusa Tenggara Timur HE. Alexander Sena, President Director of Transnusa Aviation Mandiri, Mr. Juvenile Jodjana, members of the Kupang media, travel agents and other government officials and airport authorities.

After participating in the ceremonial event and enjoying lunch in Dili, the ATR72 aircraft took to the skies at 14:30 LT and carried the delegation back to Kupang together with over 40 VIPs from Dili and passengers excited to discover what Kupang had to offer. Info from Air Timor media release.

Chinese Hospital Ship Visits.

The Chinese People's Liberation Army (PLA) Navy's hospital ship Peace Ark (Hull 866), currently on its "Harmonious Mission 2017" task, arrived in Dili, capital of Timor-Leste, on 15th December for an 8-day friendly visit and humanitarian medical services.

This is the first visit of Chinese hospital ship Peace Ark to Timor-Leste, and also the second visit of the PLA Navy to Timor-Leste.

Over 500 people, including Timor-Leste's Minister for Defense and Security Cirilo José Cristovão, Chinese Ambassador to Timor-Leste Liu Hongyang, Chinese military attaché Huang Damin, working staff of the Chinese Embassy in Timor-Leste, representatives of China-funded institutions, overseas Chinese and local people welcomed the Chinese naval hospital ship at the port. Rear Admiral Guan Bailin, the visiting commanding officer of the "Harmonious Mission 2017" task, said the Peace Ark came to Timor-Leste to provide free medical services after visiting seven African countries in an effort to further consolidate and develop traditional friendly relations and promote pragmatic cooperation between the two countries through a series of activities. Timor-Leste is the last stop of the Chinese Peace Ark ship's "Harmonious Mission 2017", and also the 37th country visited by the Peace Ark since it was commissioned. Text from mod.gov.cn
